

Deputies Graduate from Law Enforcement Training

Sheriff Charlie Ray Fox is pleased to announce the graduation of Lt. Micah Meadows and Deputy Candace Shaw from the Rappahannock Regional Criminal Justice Academy Law Enforcement Basic Class #92.

Hosted by Ed Evers, Director of the Academy, the commencement, including a luncheon, was held at the Eagles Club in Winchester, Virginia on December 7, 2006.

The graduation ceremony was attended by Major D. Flohr and Capt. M. Sager from the FCSO. The guest speaker was Sheriff Charlie Ray Fox, who addressed the importance of community policing. To these new graduates Sheriff Fox emphasized the value of communication and personal, positive contacts with citizens.

Representing seven different Northern Virginia agencies, these officers attended the Middletown Campus for 17 weeks. They were the first to use the new EVOC Academy Driver Training Range. This course includes a serpentine paved course with shoulders to simulate real road conditions.

Lt. Meadows is assigned to the Adult Detention Center, and Deputy Shaw will be a School Resource Officer.
